

Pueblo County High School Alumni Hall of Fame

Nomination Form

Sponsored by the Pueblo County High School Alumni Foundation

The Pueblo County High School Alumni Hall of Fame recognizes graduates who have made significant contributions to the community and/or contributed service to the prestige and progress of Pueblo County High School. This recognition is the highest honor that can be given by Pueblo County High School to one of its alumni.

NOMINATION CRITERIA:

- Nominee must have graduated from Pueblo County High School at least 10 years prior to their nomination. This requirement may be waived in extraordinary circumstances.
- Nominee must have achieved a high degree of success in his/her professional field. Individuals may also be nominated based on an act of bravery or heroism, or be recognized for community service or outstanding citizenship.
- Nominee must serve as a role model for current students and have consistently demonstrated the highest ethical and moral standards - both as a student and an alumnus.
- Pueblo County High School faculty, administration, staff, parents and volunteers may be considered even though they have not graduated from Pueblo County High School. In this case, the candidate must have sound credentials as a significant contributor to Pueblo County High School and the community at large.
